

Liquid Rubber

Asbestos

There are many and various construction materials in site today that contain Asbestos. Common examples are Roofing sheets, pipe insulation and fire proof panels. Removal can be costly, hazardous to health and may incur operational downtime.

Liquid Rubber, when applied to the entire surface will encapsulate all fibres this sealing in harmful substances.

Application may be brush, roller or spray and preperational techniques do not disturb the surface.